

La Scena and The Music Scene launch the 1st annual International Arts Festival Guide

The Spring 2008 issues of La Scena and The Music Scene will present, in tandem, the 1st annual International Arts Festival Guide.

* La Scena is a quarterly multi-disciplinary arts magazine that is published together with La Scena Musicale, our well-established monthly classical, jazz and world music publication. Both magazines are distributed in French and bilingual markets (primarily Quebec)

* The Music Scene covers classical, jazz, and world music and is distributed in English-language markets across Canada

In 2007, La Scena Musicale and The Music Scene each released two special issues as part of the 11th Annual Canadian Summer Festival Guide, covering over 200 festivals in classical, jazz, world and folk music. Following the success of last year's guides, the Spring 2008 issues of these magazines will offer readers a prelude to the international summer festival scene!

The Festival Guide will appear as a special insert in La Scena and The Music Scene, in addition to regular feature articles, reviews and monthly concert calendar.

Advertising Advantages

* Prestige: appearing in the most widely-distributed classical music magazine in Canada. Be part of our most popular issue of the year!

* Reach: over 100,000 dedicated readers across Canada, the joint distribution of both La Scena Musicale and The Music Scene covers all the major cities of Canada.

* Online 24/7: always accessible in our searchable calendar listings and pdf version of the magazine

* Maximum visibility: our festival listings are the most frequently-consulted feature of the year!

* Flexibility: colour or b&w, glossy or newsprint; we are happy to accommodate special needs and requests

* Good company: our writers have established a loyal readership

* Extra: The strong Canadian dollar is currently motivating our readers to travel further afield to cultural events

An opportunity for you to be part of a lively and interactive Canadian network that reaches out to artists, musicians and their patrons.

LA 26^e ÉDITION DU MONDIAL DES CULTURES DE DRUMMONDVILLE Du 5 au 15 juillet 2007

www.mondialdescultures.com

Les préparatifs de cette 26^e édition du Mondial des cultures de Drummondville vont bon train. Les troupes confirmées à ce jour proviennent de la Belgique, de la Corée, du Cuba, de la Chine, de la Grèce, de l'Italie, de la Russie, de la Martinique, sans oublier, bien sûr, la troupe hôte, Mackinaw de Drummondville. À cela s'ajouteront des artistes de renom, dont le chanteur italien Marco Calliari.

La soirée d'ouverture, le 5 juillet prochain, sera une grande fête internationale (et gratuite!), où toutes les troupes participantes créeront une grande mosaïque culturelle avec plus de 500 artistes sur scène. Une grande première pour cette 26^e édition: le mardi 10 juillet aura lieu le Défilé international Loto-Québec qui se terminera par une danse aux sonorités des grands succès populaires des pays de provenance des troupes présentes au festival. Comme par le passé, la programmation sera variée, éclectique, chaleureuse et, surtout, pleine de découvertes. Outre les grands spectacles au Centre culturel, il y aura bien sûr les spectacles au Parc Woodyatt où vous pourrez assister à des représentations au Pavillon des Cultures Loto-Québec et à la Folklotheque Bluberi. Les spectacles à grand déploiement seront offerts sur la Grande Place SAQ. Pour tous les âges et tous les goûts! BD
